Keynote Address By Paul D'souza

Paul D'Souza, our distinguished keynote speaker, raised thought-provoking questions about traditional pedagogical approaches. He introduced the captivating concept of "GLOCAL" pedagogy, urging us to plan for the local while keeping a vigilant eye on the global. This approach offers a fresh perspective on pedagogical practices and could reshape the future of education. Paul's "Trishul" pedagogy plan, which emphasizes the dissemination of global knowledge, its understanding through scientific temper development, and the internalization of this understanding into learners' attitudes, has ignited our imagination.

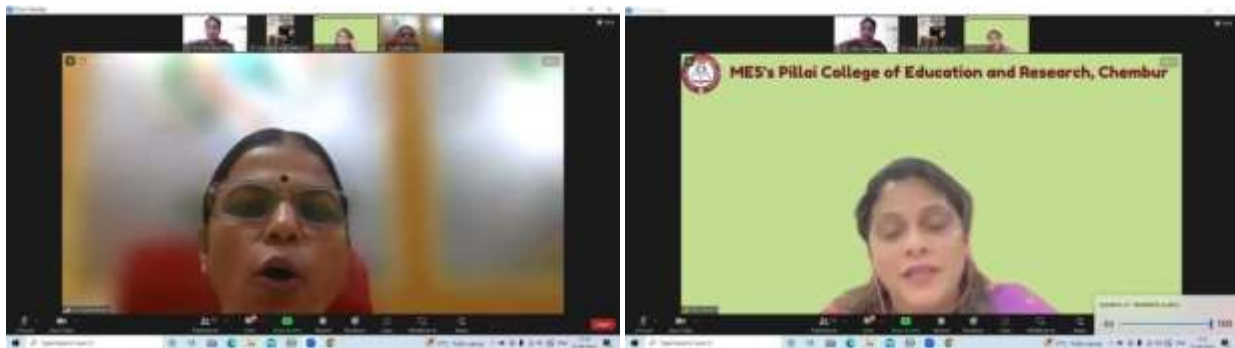

Felicitation Address: We were honored to host a distinguished panel of guest speakers who shared their expertise and insights:

Prof. (Dr.) T. Mohamed Saleem, Principal, Farook Training College, Prof. Sunita Magre, Professor, Central University of Jharkhand, Ranchi, Dr. Reni Francis, Dr. A.
