Conclusion/Report

FINE ARTS DAY -Hosh Mein Aao

26th February 2020

The Fine Arts Fest organized by Farook Training College's Liberte Students' Union is in solidarity with the struggle against the Citizenship Bill and condemns the riots in Delhi. The event was organized under the name 'Hosh Mein Aao' which means 'Come to one's senses'. About 26 off stage programs were conducted after dividing the students into 4 groups namely Unity, Integrity, Equality and Justice.

The students raised their voices of protest by silence and flames. After the welcome speech, the Fine Arts Day commenced by handing over the flame of protest lit by Fine Arts Secretary Vipin to Principal Dr. CA Jawahar. The flame was passed down to the Teachers, non-teaching staff and union members. Principal Dr. C A Jawahar and also the Fine Arts Advisor, Dr. Aseel Abdul Wahid spoke at the event. Thereafter, the students participated in various arts programs. About 16 on stage programs were conducted with great spirit and tight competition.

5th February 2020

Farook Training College Students came across the sympathetic eyes of those who had to extend their hands for a single meal and the emptiness of the wandering people who were forced to live in the streets...a day of satisfaction for having given at least a meal for the needy... 'Pothichoor' by Hridayapoorvam of FTC has taught a lesson for life that every grain of rice that is being wasted will have in it, the tears of those who are waiting for it. All B.Ed 2nd year students were engaged in the 'Meal for the Needy' programme. Dr. Afeef Tharavattath, Coordinator of Extension activity coordinated the programme
