PhD Open Defense of Ms. Irshana Shahanas Ulladan 17th June 2022

The open defence/ viva-voce examination of Ms. Irshana Shahnaz Ulladan, part time scholar of FTC under the guidance of Dr. P. P. Noushad, Associate Professor, SGTDS, MG University and coguided by Prof (Dr.)T. Mohamed Saleem, Principal, Farook Training College, was conducted successfully on 17th June 2022 Friday at 10am at Multimedia Interactive Hall, offline mode in the presence of the Chairperson Prof. (Dr.). M. A Sudhir., UGC Emeritus Professor, Gandhigram Rural Institute. Dr. T. Muhammed Saleem, Principal, FTC presented the welcome note followed by the Introductory address by the Supervisor Dr. P. P. Noushad, Associate Professor, SGTDS, MG University.

Ms. Irshana Shahnaz Ulladan presented her study titled "Marginalization and Disaffection among Backward Class Girl Students from Malabar in Higher Educational Institutions." Marginalization as a result of historical, political and social factors hampers equitable development of the citizens of India in many respects including education. Disaffection is often a part and parcel of marginalized students. The present study is a qualitative study following Grounded Theory design to develop categories on Marginalization and Disaffection. Data was collected from a sample of 131 girl students from SC/ST and Muslim community undergoing higher education programs in various disciplines- Arts and Science, Teacher training, Medicine and Engineering and from 8 faculties of higher education institutions. Faculty members, academicians and Research scholars of various universities and institutions were present in the session. The presentation was followed by reflections from participants. The board of adjudicators recommended the thesis for publication. The program came to an end by 1.00 pm. Ms. Irshana Shahnaz Ulladan delivered the vote of thanks.

MARGINALIZATION AND DISAFFECTION AMONG BACKWARD CLASS GIRL STUDENTS FROM MALABAR IN HIGHER EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS
KEY TERMS:
Marginalization
Marginalization (in education) is both an outcome and a process through which individuals or groups are systematically denied their right to acquire academic or social capabilities through education, that results in their exclusion from social institutions, civic processes and economies. This can be temporary, long term or even intergenerationally entrenched. (Thematic Review: Understanding and Addressing Educational Marginalization, Part 1: A new Conceptual Framework for educational marginalization, 2018)
Disaffection
Disaffection refers to negative engagement or participation in academic activities, where engagement involves active, goal directed, flexible, constructive, persistent, focused, emotionally positive interactions with the social and physical environment. (Skinner et al., 2008)
Backward Class
The term backward class is used to refer to communities that are backward socially in relation to the rest of the population. In the proposed study, backward class refers to Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribe and Muslims.
Higher Educational Institutions
Refers to educational institutions where students pursue courses in specialized subjects after completion of 10+2 schooling. Here it refers to Arts and Science Colleges, Teacher Education Colleges, Medical Colleges and Technical Colleges.
Malabar
Geographically it refers to districts of Kerala including Palakkad, Malappuram, Kozhikode, Kannur, Kasargod and Wayanad. For the present study all the districts except Palakkad and Kasargod have been considered.
RESEARCH QUESTIONS:
1. What are the precursors of student marginalization among Backward Class Girls in Higher Educational Institutions?
2. What are the consequences of marginalization in academic performance among Backward Class Girls in Higher Educational Institutions?
3. What are the different feelings of disaffection due to marginalization among Backward Class Girls in Higher Educational Institutions?
4. How can marginalization of Backward Class Girls in Higher Educational Institutions be overcome?
DESIGN OF THE STUDY: Grounded Theory (Qualitative)
TOOLS:
1. Open ended questionnaire- Questionnaire on Marginalization.
2. Open ended questionnaire-Questionnaire on Disaffection.
3. Interview Schedule on Marginalization and Disaffection of Backward Female Students of Malabar in Higher Educational Institutions.
SAMPLING- Purposive Sampling (Theoretical Sampling and Maximum Variation Sampling)

SUBSTANTIVE THEORY
The theoretical model developed out of the qualitative analysis of various themes as precursors and consequences of marginalisation and disaffection formulates a substantive explanation of their interrelationships and overlapping. Analytic Induction of experiences of marginalization of backward class girl students in Malabar in Higher Education due to varying precursors include themes as economical, teacher based, personal, social, political, familial, peer based and religion leading to negative emotional and physical consequences in academic performance which overlap with the feelings of disaffection at emotional and behavioural themes and each theme with a number of categories included.
INFERENCES
• Backward Female students in Higher Educational Institutions experience implicit marginalization.
• Disaffection in academics do emerge as a consequence of marginalization.
• The major precursor of marginalization is identified as Economical. Differences between haves and have nots creates a huge impact.
• There are similarities and dissimilarities in experiences of marginalization among Muslim students on one hand (Religion) and SC, ST on the other (Caste).
• Caste continues as an invisible withdrawal force.
EDUCATIONAL IMPLICATIONS
• To create awareness on the educational policy makers on the marginalization and disaffection issues in education at all levels.
• Strengthen teacher pupil relations through various strategy such as the tutor ward system.
• Ensure a working and efficient feedback mechanism in institutions.
• Educational institutions should celebrate individual and social differences to harness India's true potential.
• The consequence of marginalization is felt most as negative psychological effects where fear dominates.
• Feelings of disaffection is also expressed in emotions as self centered and followed by teacher centered.
• Students in educational institutions desire an elevated inclusionary practice from teachers as they consider teacher as the captain of the educational process.
• A conscious and multidisciplinary effort can definitely overcome marginalization and disaffection to create a productive Young India.

Report

One Day Workshop on Academic Writing 16th June 2022

Farook Training College conducted workshop on academic writing on 16th June 2022 from 10am to 3.30pm at MMI hall under the auspicious of M. Ed association 2020-2022. The session was done by the resource person Dr. C.M Bindhu, Professor, Dept. of Education, University of Calicut. The session started with welcome speech delivered by Afeefa of MEd second year. Resource person started the first session by introducing how to write an abstract. After that M.Ed students were asked to write an abstract for their study. Resource person also explained how to write an article.

During the afternoon session m.ed students were asked to write an article based on their dissertation. Each student prepared an article and some of them were presented in class. Teacher explained and corrected the errors as and when needed. The whole session was very useful as all children got an idea of writing abstract and also an article. Sreepthi of M.Ed second year extended vote of thanks at the end of the session.
