National Seminar on New School Curriculum 26th October 2022

A National Seminar on 'Future Teacher Education' was held at Farook Training College on 26/10/2022 in connection with revision of school curriculum organised by DIET Kasaragod and SCERT. More than seventy participants including teachers, research scholars, M.Ed students took part in it.

The programme commenced with a silent prayer. Dr. M T Sasi, research officer SCERT Kerala delivered the welcome speech. He emphasised the humanitarian values to be instilled in students. The presidential address was by Dr. Jayaprakash R K, Director of SCERT, Kerala. He expressed the need of modifications in pre-service teacher education. Dr NK Jayaraj, Vice-chancellor, University of Calicut inaugurated the programme. The need to develop scientific temper was the main area of his talk. Dr. T. Mohamed Saleem, Principal of Farook Training College, during his felicitation mentioned that a significant step in the process towards the curriculum revision is to co-ordinate the faculty of elementary and secondary levels in contributing the best. The felicitation by Sri Premaraj, Principal, DIET, Kozhikode, reminded the challenges and complexities in the teaching profession as knowledge is being sold in knowledge societies.

The focus group discussion started with an introductory session by Dr. K. Abdul Gafoor, Prof. and Head of the Department of Education, University of Calicut. In his view integration of primary and secondary levels of education is the need of the hour. He expressed hope that the seminar paved the way for that. 'Tomorrow's Teacher Education', the key area was presented by Dr. Shakila Shamsu, Secretary, Committee to draft NEP. The highlights of NEP 2020 and the NPST draft were discussed.

Dr. C Ramakrishnan, Curriculum core committee member, highlighted work integrated education instead of vocational education and 21st century skills in the context of Kerala. Briefing was done by Sri. Vinod Kumar PV, Coordinator, Teacher education focus group. Dr. V. Parameswaran, Focus group member expressed the gratitude.

Workshop on Research and Publication Ethics

Research and publication ethics are crucial components of academic and scientific integrity. As researchers and scholars, we have a responsibility to conduct research and publish our findings with the highest standards of ethical conduct. This includes ensuring that our research is conducted with integrity, honesty, and transparency, and that our publications accurately reflect our research findings.

In this session, we will explore various aspects of research and publication ethics, including the ethical principles that underlie the scientific process, the challenges that researchers face, and the best practices for ensuring that our research and publications meet ethical standards. We will also discuss the importance of understanding and addressing ethical problems and dilemmas, as well as the consequences of failing to do so.

Whether you are a student researcher or an established academic, we will provide you with practical insights and ethical tools for navigating the complex world of research and publication ethics. This will be followed by a Q&A session, where you will have the opportunity to discuss any questions or concerns that you may have.
