ORDER

As per Government Order read as 3rd paper above in implementation of the revised norms and regulations of NCTE 2014, the no. of intake for B.Ed courses in all existing Government/ Aided Training colleges are limited to one unit (50 seats) without cancelling any of the existing optional subjects and without reducing the existing staff strength and by creating essential posts. Now as per letters read as 2nd, 4th,5th,6th the concerned colleges requested to allow to continue the B.Ed & M.Ed courses in present conditions.

Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to accord sanction in principle to the following colleges.

i)　Mount Tabor Training College, Pathanapuram , Kollam and St. Joseph Training College for Women. Ernakulam which requires no further teaching posts other than that of Fine Arts & performing Arts are permitted to run total two unit B.Ed course (100 seats per year).

ii)　Farok Training College. Farok, Kozhikode and NSS Training College, Ottapalam, Palakkad which requires one or two teaching posts other than that of Fine Arts & Performing Arts are permitted to run two unit B.Ed courses (100 seats per year) and one unit M.Ed course. (50 seats per year).

iii) NSS Training College, Changanassery and Sree Narayana Training College, Nedumganda, Thiruvananthapuram are having 7 & 6 optional subjects respectively. The NCTE regulations provides 8 teachers with 8 optional subjects. But for running the courses in these colleges only 7 & 6 teachers respectively are necessary. Hence permission is given to these two colleges to run two units of B.Ed course without any creation of teaching post other than that of Fine Arts & Performing Arts subject to the permission from NCTE to conduct the course with one teacher per option.
