Lecture on APA Style Referencing (7th Edition) 8th August 2022

A highly informative and engaging lecture on "APA Style Referencing (7th Edition) and Ethical Considerations in Research" was conducted for PG & Research Department of Farook Training College on August 8, 2022. The session was led by Dr. K Thiyagu, Assistant Professor from the Central University of Kerala, a distinguished expert in the field.

The event commenced with a thought-provoking presidential address by Prof (Dr) T Mohammed Saleem, the Principal of Farook Training College. He emphasized the importance of impeccable referencing and ethical research practices in maintaining academic integrity.

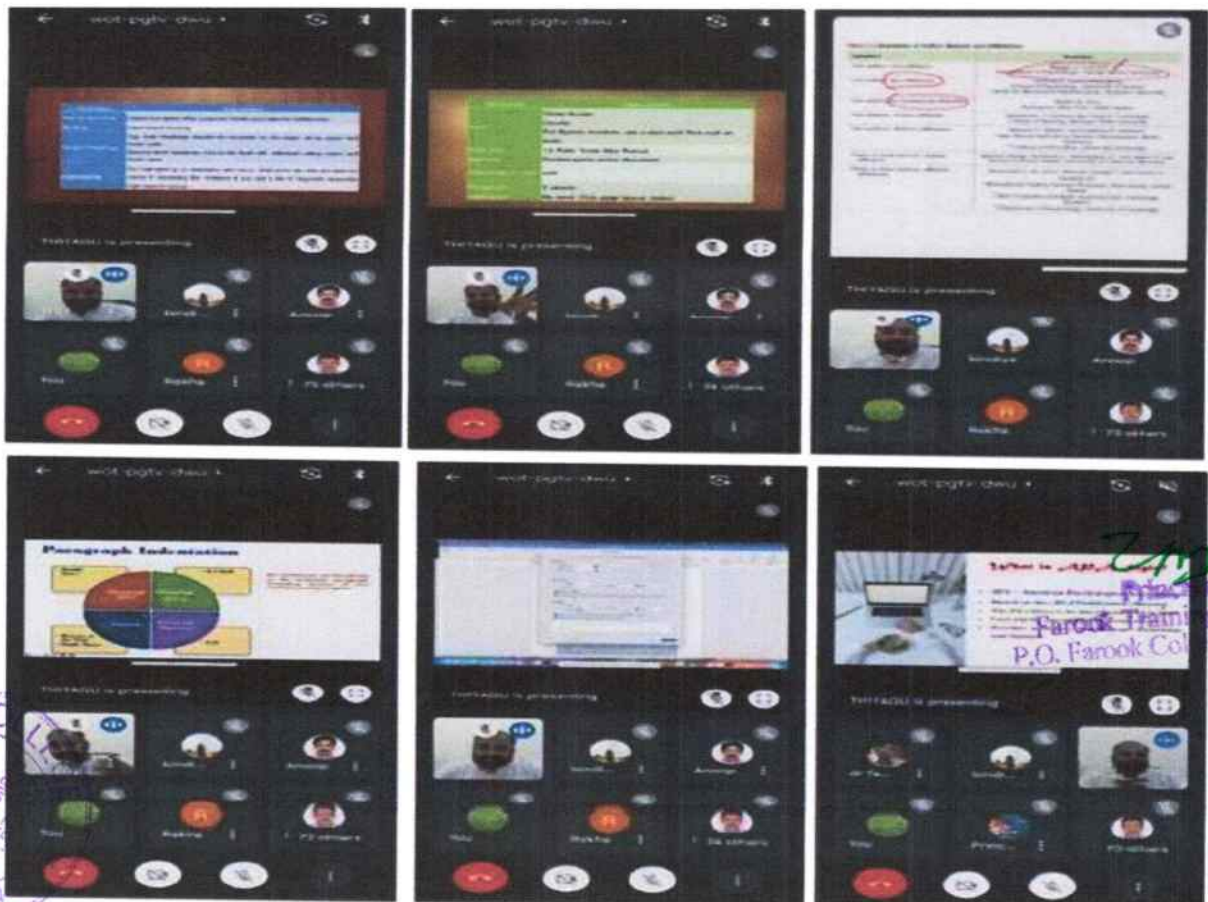

Dr. Rekha RP, the MEd Coordinator, extended a warm welcome to the esteemed speaker, Dr. K Thiyagu, acknowledging his expertise and the valuable insights he was about to share.

Dr. K Thiyagu delivered an enlightening lecture on the intricacies of APA Style Referencing, particularly focusing on the updates in the 7th Edition. Additionally, he shed light on ethical considerations in research, underlining the significance of responsible and ethical conduct in academic research.

The lecture was followed by an interactive session where participants had the opportunity to seek clarification on referencing nuances and ethical dilemmas in research. Dr. Thiyagu's responses provided valuable guidance to the audience.

Dr. Afeef Tharavattathu, member of the Ethics Committee, extended a sincere vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Dr. K Thiyagu for his enriching session.

The event successfully achieved its objective of enhancing the participants' understanding of APA Style Referencing and ethical considerations in research. It not only provided valuable insights but also encouraged a culture of responsible and ethical research practices among the PG & Research Department.

One Week Induction & Bridge Course for B.Ed & M.Ed Students 7th – 12th October 2022

Day 1
(07/10/2022)

Farook Training College conducted a four-day bridge course for first-year B.Ed and M.Ed students from 07/10/2022 to 12/10/2022. The objective was to prepare students to become teacher educators and familiarize them with the B.Ed course. Dr. T. Muhammad Saleem, the Principal, inaugurated the program and delivered an inspiring speech. On the first day, the session began with Farook Geeth, creating a positive atmosphere. Mr. Fasalul Abid, our coordinator, welcomed Dr. Afeef Tharavattathu, who led a session on 'Campus Extends to the Community,' blending information and entertainment to inspire community engagement.

The second session by Dr. Afeef focused on 'Orientation to Extension Activities,' exploring the college's community initiatives and introducing the Garden of Farook Training College. Dr. Afeef discussed college morality, ethics, and NSS projects, emphasizing the commitment to community service.

In the third session, Principal Dr. T. Mohammed Saleem discussed 'The Chemistry of Togetherness,' highlighting the role of parents as teachers and assigning a follow-up activity. This session helped students understand the essence of Farook Training College students from 07/10/2022 to 12/10/2022.

The second day of the bridge course kicked off with Nowfal sir's enlightening session on "The Art and Heart of Teaching." The core theme emphasized that teaching is an art, and a teacher is an artist. Nowfal sir highlighted the importance of shaping not just knowledgeable individuals but great human beings. He shared compelling anecdotes from his life, weaving in songs, stories, and engaging activities to captivate the audience. His key message resonated around the idea that effective teaching requires empathy and a connection with students on a human level.

Throughout his class, Nowfal sir emphasized that as educators, we should not burden students with tasks beyond their capacity. He encouraged us to embrace a child's perspective, both mentally and physically. The session was not only intellectually stimulating but also emotionally touching, inspiring many to develop a profound love for the teaching profession. Nowfal sir's crystal-clear explanations left a lasting impact, and the gratitude for the insightful session was widespread.

The day continued with a campus walk organized by FTC, providing an opportunity to explore the college surroundings. Afeef sir, Farooq sir, and Nowfal sir shared insights into the history of the prestigious campus. The walk included visits to various sister institutions of Farook Management. Afeef sir added a humorous touch by sharing personal experiences, making the campus walk not only informative but also entertaining. Highlights included the resting place of the eminent scholar Abussabah, the founder of Farook College, and a glimpse into his former residence. The day's experiences added depth to our understanding of the campus and its rich heritage.

The first session on Teacher Behavior by Shareef Sir was enlightening. Shareef Sir, with his witty nature, effectively conveyed the message that "Teaching is an art, and a Teacher is an artist." He shared impactful stories from his life, highlighting the profound impact teachers can have with their words. The session successfully instilled values, patience, and empathy in aspiring teachers.

The second session addressed the critical issue of drug abuse, led by Jayarajan Sir, Sub Inspector, Nadakkavu Police Station. He shared relevant experiences and emphasized the alarming influence of drugs, even among primary students. The session underscored the importance of creating awareness against drug abuse and introduced governmental systems to prevent it.

The third session, conducted by Salahudeen MP, a radio artist, and former Media One programmer, focused on 'Tuning our Tone.' Salahudeen beautifully explained methods to enhance Guruvani radio programs, emphasizing the beauty of every voice with a microphone. The session was not only informative but also highly inspirational, stressing the significance of well-prepared program scripts.

F-Talk on 'Professionalising Teacher-Global Perspective' 1st February 2023

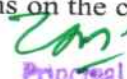

On February 1st, 2023, Farook Training College once again hosted the International Frontier Lecture Series, known as F-Talk, as part of its commitment to providing a platform for inspirational discussions on education. The specific theme for this F-Talk was 'Professionalising Teacher- Global Perspectives,' tailored to enhance the professional competencies of final year students.

The event's success was highlighted by the esteemed presence of Dr. Shahid Cholayil as the chief guest. The F-Talk commenced with a prayer, followed by a warm welcome from Mr. Rishad, the staff secretary of Farook Training College. Prof Dr. Mohamed Saleem, the Principal, delivered the presidential address. A memento was then presented to Dr. Shahid Cholayil by Mr. V. M. Basheer, a member of Rauthathul Uloom Association, who also delivered a speech.

Dr. Shahid Cholayil's session focused on the importance of professionalizing teachers and highlighted the impact of artificial intelligence in various fields. The audience, comprising MEd students, BEd students, and research scholars, actively engaged in the session with questions and queries. Feedback from the students underscored the positive influence of the discussion.

The formal conclusion of the session included the 'vote of thanks' delivered by Mrs. Lulu S Kappil, a research scholar at Farook Training College. The event once again proved to be a valuable platform for diverse perspectives and meaningful interactions on the chosen topic.
