COURSE : "ADVANCED COMMUNICATIVE ENGLISH FOR PROSPECTIVE TEACHER EDUCATORS".

(30 hours)

Module Overview:

This module is designed to enhance teachers' English language skills, focusing on practical communication strategies for effective classroom instruction. It covers key language competencies-speaking, listening, reading, and writing-with an emphasis on fostering clear, confident, and interactive communication. Teachers will learn techniques for engaging students in meaningful conversations, developing their language fluency, and creating a supportive learning environment. The module also explores the integration of communicative approaches, task-based learning, and real-world contexts to promote language acquisition. By the end of the module, each teacher will be equipped to facilitate dynamic and student-centered English lessons in diverse classrooms.

Module Duration : 30 Hours

Target Audience : Master of Education Students.

Learning Outcomes;

Learner

1. Identify the socio-linguistic principles that shape English in global communication.
2. Analyze the global spread of English and its various regional and social varieties.
3. Examine the role of the English language as a lingua franca in international contexts.
4. Evaluate the intersection of language and identity, focusing on English in multicultural societies.
5. Assess the impact of globalization on English usage in business, education, and media.

6. Explore language power dynamics, including linguistic imperialism and social stratification in English-speaking communities.
7. Apply socio-linguistic theories to real-world case studies of English communication across cultures.

These outcomes provide a focused, yet comprehensive view of how English functions in diverse socio-cultural contexts.
